

ITS2.2/SSP1.2 EDI Achievements and perspectives in scientific ocean and continental drilling

EGU23-4104

ICDP Drilling into Seismogenic zones in South African mines (DSeis; 2016 - onwards)

Hiroshi Ogasawara and the ICDP DSeis team

References

- Drilling proposal: Ogasawara et al. AfriRock 2017
- Preliminary reports on
 - Drilling and 2D seismic reflection : Ogasawara et al. Deep mining 2019
https://papers.acg.uwa.edu.au/p/1952_28_Ogasawara/
 - Stress measured in-situ: Yabe et al. Deep Mining 2019
https://doi: 10.36487/ACG_rep/1952_30_Yabe
- Follow-up reports published in 2022 on
 - Rock stress: Yabe et al. Pageoph.
<https://link.springer.com/article/10.1007/s00024-022-02999-w>
 - Mechanical property: Nkosi et al. Int. J. Rock Mech. Min. Sci.
<https://www.sciencedirect.com/science/article/abs/pii/S1365160922000508>
 - XRD and XRF analysis and friction experiment: Miyamoto et al. Geophys. Res. Lett.
<https://agupubs.onlinelibrary.wiley.com/doi/full/10.1029/2022GL098745>
 - Analisis of mineral composition, friction and 2D seismic reflection: Mngadi et al. Proc. Int. Symp. Rockburst and Seismicity in Mines.
 - > 1Ga age of the hypersaline brine: Oliver et al. Nature Comm.
<https://doi.org/10.1038/s41467-022-31412-2>
 - Hypersaline brine and associated chemical and geological analysis: Nisson et al. Geochimica et Cosmichemica Acta.
<https://doi.org/10.1016/j.gca.2022.11.015>
- Other relevant critical results have been or are to be summarized in several Master theses, which will have to be published soon together with ICDP DSeis Operational Report.